Birthdays in school

Birthdays are celebrated in both the infants and juniors by singing happy birthday in class. In addition, we have a monthly birthday assembly in KS1. Please be aware that families celebrate birthdays in different ways, so please do not bring in any cakes, treats or party bags.

Newsletter by Email

We are pleased that we are now able to send you the newsletter by email. Please sign up on the school website homepage. Newsletters will be emailed out to everyone on the mailing list, so please sign up!

Gentle Reminder

Please ensure that your child has their packed lunch, PE kits instruments etc ready for the school day. It's important that children are fully prepared for school for their day to run as smoothly and affectively as possible.

Dear Parents/Carers,

Ofsted/ Review

The Junior school were visited by some inspectors on Monday. We invited them in to help us evaluate the school and prepare us for the pending Ofsted inspection. By chance, Ofsted called us the next day and then inspected the school on Wednesday. The visit was carried out by one inspector. She conducted a review of our teaching and learning, as well as our safeguarding arrangements. We cannot share the outcome with you at this stage as her judgements need to be quality assured by OfSTED. Once that happens, we will ensure that you all have access to her findings. Thank you to those of you that took the time to fill out the survey on Parent View.

Parent volunteers on Trips

Thank you to parents who volunteer to come on trips. We appreciate your time and energy to come and assist staff. However, it is not possible for everyone who volunteers to come on every trip. The class teacher will always let you know before the trip if you are able to come or not. We know this can be disappointing, but please understand that volunteers are required to help staff ensure the trip runs smoothly and numbers are always limited.

Yellow Class Teacher

Caireann will be starting her maternity leave on Friday 27th January. We wish her all the best and we will let you know when there is any more news! Harriet

Green, who has been working alongside Caireann this term, will continue in the role of Yellow Class teacher for the remainder of the academic year.

Trips and Visits

Year 2 visited St Paul's Cathedral and the Museum of London this week to find more about the Great Fire of London.

All children in the Infant school thoroughly enjoyed a visit from the Little Angel Theatre company who performed 'Wow! Said the Owl' on Tuesday. Check the website for news and photos of school trips.
