World Book Day

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are pleased to announce the children will be celebrating World Book Day, which is on Thursday 7th March, by dressing-up as their favourite book character.

We are always excited to see the children wearing their homemade costumes and guessing which book character they are. There are many ideas online on how to make your favourite character's costume at home.

In addition, as part of our drive to maintain, promote and engage pupil interest in reading, the school is running two competitions:

- a sponsored read throughout February where all contributions will be used to buy further books for the school
- story in a jar, paint a potato or make a favourite book cover in 3D (see next page for ideas) that is due in on Wednesday 6th March and winners will be announced on World Book Day in assembly. There will be a winner and runner up per year group!

Yours sincerely,

Nancy Atkins

Story in a Jar.

Create a scene in a jar based on a book of your choice. You can choose a book you are reading now, a childhood favourite or any other book you like. Use different craft supplies and junk modelling material to create your scene.

Paint a potato.

Decorate a potato as a character from a book using paint. Be as inventive as you like!

Design a new cover for your favourite book using 3D modelling materials or collage

Design a new cover for your favourite book.
